Col. Parker Will Greet Col. Bryan

DISTINGUISHED NEBRASKAN MET HAWAIIAN YEARS AGO IN SOUTH OMAHA—WAS INVITED THEN TO VISIT THE ISLANDS AND SAID THAT HE MIGHT DO SO—COL. PARKER GAVE HIM GOOD ADVICE THAT WAS NOT FOLLOWED.

If Chairman W. A. Kinney, the other Democrats, the Merchants' Association and the community in general think that they will have any monopoly in entertaining William Jennings Bryan the famous Democratic leader, during his visit in Hawaii, they will probably be disappointed. There is one man in the community who is personally acquainted with Colonel Bryan and he invited Colonel Bryan nearly seven years ago to visit Honolulu and received Colonel Bryan's assurance that the invitation would probably be accepted. That man is Colonel Sam Parker and it is pretty safe to predict that when the steamer that bears Col. Bryan arrives off Honolulu almost the first inquiry made by Colonel Bryan will be for his friend Colonel Sam Parker. The meeting of the two gentlemen was informal but it was under such interesting circumstances as to be dignified by being termed historical. The man from Hawaii met the man from Nebraska at South Omaha, Nebraska between presidential campaigns. Incidentally Colonel Sam gave the distinguished Democrat some good advice that Bryan failed to heed but which was later corroborated in every way.

Colonel Parker was going to Washington to meet President McKinley and when the train reached South Omaha the Colonel heard the noise of a band and inquiring of the porter the cause was informed that "Mistah Bryan" was aboard. Parker immediately declared that he proposed to meet Bryan. "I am a Republican," exclaimed Colonel Sam "but I like that fellow and I am going to shake hands with him." So Parker started toward the car where Bryan was receiving the crowds of people. After a hard struggle Colonel Parker finally reached somebody who was able to present him to the distinguished Democrat.

"Colonel Parker, I have heard of you," said Colonel Bryan and then followed a very interesting conversation between the two men. "I am a Republican," said Colonel Sam "but I bet on you the last election, Colonel Bryan. But Colonel Bryan, there is no use you trying to run again. You have as much chance of being elected president as I have of being Pope of Rome." The bystanders did not approve of this sound advice which the man from Hawaii gave to the man from Democracy. But Colonel Sam persisted in this advice which Colonel Bryan took with good grace. In fact, so pleased was Colonel Bryan with Colonel Parker that the Nebraska invited the Hawaiian man to stop over and visit him, but Colonel Parker was unable to accept the invitation.

"Colonel Bryan," exclaimed Colonel Parker "I want you to come to Hawaii and let me know when you do for I will kill the fattest bullock on my ranch for you." "All right, Colonel," exclaimed Colonel Bryan evidently delighted with the invitation, "I may be down your way some time and when I do, I will certainly let you know." And now there seems to be a prospect that the two colonels will meet once more, this time on the native soil of the Hawaiian man. Colonel Parker was delighted to learn that the Nebraska was likely to visit Hawaii and at once recalled the meeting "and I tell you what," continued Colonel Parker "if I am in Honolulu when he comes, I will certainly be on hand to meet him."

GETTING READY FOR POLO GAME

THE MAUI PLAYERS AND THEIR SPLENDID STRING OF PONIES DID SOME LIGHT PRACTICE AT MOANALUA YESTERDAY AFTERNOON—OAHU BOYS ALSO GOT IN SOME HEAVY WORK—THE FIELD IS IN BETTER SHAPE THAN EVER.

From the showing made by the Maui polo team in practice yesterday afternoon it is plain that Oahu is going to have anything but a snap in the big game that is to be played on Saturday and, in fact, the betting is decidedly in favor of the visitors.

The quality of the horsemanship brought by Maui is engaging the entire, and even greedy admiration of those horse lovers who have seen the ponies. Eighteen of them there are and every one is a picture. Harry Baldwin (No. 1) has Flashlight, Tom Thumb, Alazan and General Bumps. Fred Baldwin's (No. 2) are Strawberry, Daisy, Hue and Katrim. Frank Baldwin (No. 3) will ride Sure Kela, Bob Wilcox, Reindeer and Nigger, while David Fleming (No. 4) will have Venus, Manu, Jubilee and Polly. Two extra ponies, Lalpu and Molly are also in the string. The ponies have been trained and cared for with almost fatherly solicitude by Tom Patterson, an English racing man who knows ponies and the game as few men do.

The Maui team is under the management of H. B. Weller. Yesterday the team did light work at goal practice and this will be continued for the next three afternoons.

The Oahu team, which consists of C. Cooke (No. 1), Harold Castle (No. 2), W. F. Dillingham (No. 3) and G. P. Judd (No. 4) was also out for practice at Moanalua yesterday afternoon and some excellent work of a harder nature than the visitors was put in.

"The field is in excellent condition," said Manager Weller of the Maui's this morning. "It is in much better shape than it was last year when we played Kauai. By the way, it is a source of genuine regret to us all that Kauai is unable to put in a team this year, but they have two of their best men laid out, one with appendicitis and one with a bad foot. They are good keen sportsmen and I hope they will be in it again next season."

As everybody knows, two games will be played for the cup. No arrangement as to the disposition of the championship in case each team wins a match has been made so far. It was suggested this morning that the total of points in the two matches might be added, but this plan did not recommend itself to the players seen. In the eventuality of each winning a game it seems probable that a third, deciding match will be played. Incidentally it may be mentioned that one Maui supporter last evening bet $50 even with an Oahu man that Maui would win both games. Arrangements will in all probability be made for the postponement of the ball game from Saturday until Monday, Labor Day, as a large number of firms have agreed to close on Monday. Every arrangement for the comfort and convenience of visitors to the polo game is being made and a gala day may be depended upon.

KAUAI COUNTY TO BRING SUIT

SUPERVISORS OF THE GARDEN ISLAND OBJECT TO OAHU COUNTY GETTING INCOME TAX FROM CORPORATIONS WHICH DO THEIR BUSINESS ON KAUAI—WILL BRING MANDAMUS PROCEEDING TO TEST THE PROPOSITION.

The Supervisors of Kauai County have decided to contest the proposition of assessing taxes in Honolulu for Kauai corporations whose principal place of business is Honolulu, and mandamus proceedings will be brought against Assessor Farley, to compel him to assess the corporations on Kauai. County Attorney Willard rendered an opinion to the board to the effect that the taxes should be assessed and collected on Kauai, while Attorney General Andrews' opinion to the Treasurer was that taxes must be collected from corporations where their principal places of business are, as shown by their corporation papers on file in the Treasury.

The result of the Attorney General's opinion is that Oahu County gets a lot of taxes collected from corporations which are practically Kauai concerns. The sugar plantations on all the islands have usually incorporated with headquarters in Honolulu, making Honolulu their legal residence, and as a result the income tax is levied here, and Oahu County gets half of it, under the law giving each County half of the taxes collected in such County by the Territory.

Willard will bring a mandamus to force Assessor Farley to collect the taxes which he claims Kauai should have, instead of leaving them to be collected by Collector Holt in Honolulu. The attorney general will appear for the other side as counsel for Farley.

INSURANCE FIGURES RECTIFIED

IN THE TABULATED STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER A CHANGE WILL BE MADE.

A few days ago a report was published by the Insurance Commissioner, A. J. Campbell, who is also Territorial Treasurer, giving a summary of business done by the different companies in Hawaii for the year ending December 31, 1904. The business done by the different companies was given and the figures were summarized thus:

Class.	Written.	Premiums.	Losses.
Fire	$21,171,240.97	$365,460.09	$56,216.63
Marine	21,104,276.54	208,554.39	263,647.62
Life	1,926,590.66	79,058.63	$9,075.65
Acc't. etc.	15,345.82	3,805.39
Surety	3,194,100.60	5,865.05	$11.57

$47,396,202.57 $675,295.58 $392,956.77
The issuance of the report has caused a world of adverse comment in insurance circles inasmuch as the figures given for the premiums received in life insurance includes only the amounts paid for new business and the amount of the renewals collected by the life insurance companies is not given at all. Insurance men say that the statement in the form issued gives an entirely erroneous idea of the life insurance business done during 1904 as the companies had a much larger income out of which to pay their losses.

"Yes, a mistake was made in compiling the report of the life insurance business of 1904," said Insurance Commissioner Campbell when asked about the matter this morning. "I recognized the mistake immediately after the reports were issued for distribution and ordered their recall. I understood that they were all returned, but it seems that some were not. The mistake made was in giving only the figures of the new business done by the life insurance companies here in Hawaii without including the renewals. The figures for the other business, that is marine, fire and so on, are correct. A new statement is in course of preparation."

DIVORCE AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS

JAPANESE WIFE CHARGES HER HUSBAND WITH CRUELTY AND INTemperance.

Fukuda Yasu has brought suit for divorce from Fukuda Jisaku, who married her over 14 years ago in Japan. The complaint which was filed by Attorneys Thompson and Clemens, sets forth that the wedding took place in Japan "over fourteen years ago," and that the parties have lived in Hawaii for about four years past. There are two children in the case, both now in Japan.

Mrs. Fukuda says that recently her husband has been too much devoted to the flowing teacup of sake and has abused and ill-treated her when intoxicated. She names occasions on which he is alleged to have beaten her. She left him on the fifth of this month, and now asks that the court dissolve the marriage relationship contracted 14 years ago.

APPEAL FROM OLD ASSESSMENTS

BARETE ESTATE WANTS TO CORRECT TAX LEVIES FOR SEVERAL YEARS BACK.

The Barete estate taxes are the subject of a question raised by Treasurer Campbell which contains some fine legal points. The taxes have not been paid for several years past and are therefore owing to the government. This year's assessment indicates that there has been heavy over-assessment for several years past and the question is as to whether an appeal from the assessments can be entertained now.

The Barete estate property was assessed last year for $24,000. This year the assessment, upon the same property is $8,000. It was $24,000 two years ago, $21,000 the year before that and $14,000 four years ago. The taxes for all these years are still owing. The estate has offered to settle all, on a basis of a reasonable assessment, but it is a question whether the tax office can make any readjustment now. The time for appeals from the old assessments has expired, and P. D. Kellett, who was trustee of the estate, is said to have neither paid the taxes nor taken an appeal from the assessments.

It is claimed by the estate that Kellett was never legally appointed trustee and that therefore the estate is not responsible for his actions and never received notice of the assessments at all. On the other hand, it is claimed that as the estate never made a return of taxes, it is subject to such assessment as was made by the tax assessor.

PALOLO APPLICATIONS GOOD.

The applicants for the Palolo lands have all been investigated by acting Land Commissioner Lyons and found to be all right. The tax office records show that all had paid all their taxes and are thus qualified to be applicants for government lands.

LABELS.

There may be a scandal concerning the labels on sides of inspected beef, but they are not nearly so unappetizing as the labels that we have to eat on slices of bread.—New York Evening Post.

HOW PEACE WAS REACHED

ern waters. M. De Witte, according to St. Petersburg dispatches, was at this time definitely instructed not to concede either an indemnity nor Saghalien. As a new scheme it was suggested that Russia purchase Saghalien, thus pay an indemnity in a disguised way. The negotiations took a more favorable turn and on August 23 protocols were signed.

On August 24 it was reported that Japan's indemnity demand was six hundred millions and that Russia absolutely refused to pay. President Roosevelt took a prominent part in the discussion, it appeared, and he had numerous conferences with the peace envoys, besides being in direct communication with the Czar.

The indemnity was finally waived by Japan, on August 28 after an adjournment of the meeting for some days. The Czar on August 26 issued an ultimatum. He declared that there would be no agreement by Russia to pay an indemnity and that Russia would not agree, as far as Saghalien was concerned, to anything more than a division of the island. Unless Japan had proposals to make in line with these ideas, it was stated, the peace conference would adjourn and war would be resumed.

Japan's reply was a sweeping modification of her terms. She waived the indemnity and agreed to accept a cessation of North Saghalien instead of the whole island, at the same time leaving the question of price to be paid for it to arbitration. This offer which appears to be a great victory for the Russian envoys, was quickly followed today by news that the commissioners had agreed all along the line, and that peace was practically declared.

CALVERT BREWER COMING HERE

SECRETARY OF THE U. S. MORTGAGE & TRUST COMPANY WILL BRING THE NEW BONDS.

Calvert Brewer, secretary of the United States Mortgage & Trust Company of New York, will be a visitor in Honolulu shortly. He will bring with him the new $600,000 of Hawaiian bonds and will sign and witness them here. It will be his first trip to Hawaii.

The coming of Secretary Brewer is due to the fact that the bonds were taken up locally. In the case of former issues which were signed in the East, the bonds were signed by the treasurer here and then sent back to New York for final disposition. The new issue, which has been recorded, was purchased by W. G. Irwin, will be completed here by the signature of Calvert Brewer.

The exact date of his arrival is not known, but it will be some day before October 4, the date arranged for the new issue.
